The Wembley programme of Dec.9th advertised an IPP Lge match, Lions v. In preparation for a National League in 1982 Buddy Fuller re-constituted the SA. Speedway Control Board at the end of '81. The league was to include East Rand Stars (formerly Dunswart Devils), Durban Hornets, Pretoria Eagles and Tarilton Tomahawks, with a fifth team, Daleside Giants, meeting them in occasional challenge matches. The project went as far as to name teams' make-up, each to include one of the 4 visiting American riders, but for reasons unknown the competition never materialised.

Four teams agreed to participate in this league in 2003 but Wembley withdrew at the final moment. Though a Walkerville team rode they staged no home meetings.

A concluding play-off of the 'South African League Final' towards the end of 2003 between Walkerville and Rustenburg for the 'SA Club Champion's Trophy' was twice rained off. One further attempt was scheduled for 31st Jan 2004 as a curtain raiser to the new season, but when this meeting was again cancelled the competition was never completed
